Dear Mr. Burns,

On behalf of the New York State Association for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance, it is my pleasure to share the news that Ms. Tracy Sharlow is the recipient of our Association's 2014 Adapted Physical Education Teacher of the Year Award!

By virtue of this award, Tracy has distinguished herself in our profession. This recognition is evidence of her dedication to professional excellence. She has demonstrated leadership and has a reputation for exemplary work. Testimony offered on Tracy's behalf, enthusiastically validates her commitment to her students and to quality adapted physical education. Receiving a state level award, bestowed by ones professional colleagues, is a coveted honor of which Tracy should be especially proud.

Our award recipients will be honored at the Jay B. Nash Awards Dinner at our annual Conference on Friday evening, November 21, 2014 at the Turning Stone Convention Center, in Verona, New York. If you or any of Tracy's colleagues would like to attend, please call Jessica Synenki, Conference Director at 315-823-1015 for details.

We are tremendously proud of Tracy and pleased to count her as one of our valued members.

Sincerely,

Rod Mergardt
President
