

SUBJECT: ADVISORY COMMITTEES

The St. Lawrence-Lewis BOCES may appoint committees to serve as advisory bodies. These committees shall be temporary and shall be dissolved upon the accomplishment of the purpose for which they were established. The charge to each advisory committee shall be specified at the time of its creation.

The Board delegates the appointment of committee members to the District Superintendent. The District Superintendent in turn annually provides the Board with a list of appointees.

The advisory committees will report directly to the administration and the District Superintendent will share the information with the Board.

Career and Technical Education Advisory Council

It shall be the duty of the Advisory Council for Career and Technical Education to advise the Board of Cooperative Educational and Technical Services on the development of and policy matters arising in the administration of Career and Technical Education, including the preparation of long range and annual program plans submitted to the Commissioner of Education, and to assist with an annual evaluation of Career and Technical Educational programs, services and activities provided by the Board of Cooperative Educational Services.

The chairperson of each program committee shall be recommended by the District Superintendent and appointed by the Board.

Program committee members for each Career and Technical Education program will be appointed by the Advisory Council. These committees assist in planning, development of new programs, and the evaluation and revision of existing programs.

Education Law Section 4601
8 New York Code of Rules and Regulations
(NYCRR) Section 141.1

Special Education Advisory Committee

The Special Education Advisory Committee shall consist of a representative group of individuals from various organizational levels in the BOCES component districts and community agencies. The primary purpose of this committee shall be to advise in the areas of curriculum and instruction for children with disabilities.

SUBJECT: ADVISORY COMMITTEES (Cont'd.)

The chairperson shall be recommended by the District Superintendent and appointed by the Board for a one year term.

The following functions are recognized to be within the purview of the Special Education Advisory Committee:

- a) Providing advisory services in determining objectives and broad policies;
- b) Developing and proposing long-term goals;
- c) Assisting in program evaluation;
- d) Obtaining community and financial support;
- e) Soliciting support from community organizations and industries.

Consultants may be invited to assist the Committee when it is deemed necessary. These persons will meet with the Committee to give their opinion or to provide specific information. Payment for these services, if required, will be approved in advance by the BOCES administration.

Library Interloan Advisory Committee

The School Library System Council is responsible for development of a plan of service. Following approval of the plan by the Commissioner of Education, the Council is responsible to monitor implementation of the plan and to keep other librarians informed of school library system policies, procedures, activities and services.

Advisory Committee Members

Members of the above Advisory Committees may not be employed by BOCES or receive any form of remuneration therefrom.
